*Flexner notes that after her election to be the first president of the National American Woman Suffrage Association a position which she held until 1892, Stanton's leadership position in the woman suffrage movement had come to an end. Her primary concern became the responsibility of established religion for woman's inferior position. In 1895 and 1898 she published successive volumes of an astringent critique of the Old Testament, called The Woman's Bible, consisting of a detailed analysis of Biblical passages derogatory to woman. There was strong opposition to the work among suffragists ... the suffrage convention of 1896 passed a resolution explicitly disavowing any responsibility for The Woman's Bible, which was in effect a sharp rebuff to the old leader[Flexner, p. 220]. Stanton continued writing the critique until her death in 1902.
This present piece, possibly written by a member of the clergy, takes issue with statements in "The Woman's Bible" much of it having to do with the ability to hold meetings on Sundays and ends with the declaration: "This is the teaching of National Suffrage Leaders. | Are you willing for women who hold these views to become political powers in our country?"*

21. [ANTI-SUFFRAGE]. WHY SHOULD SUFFRAGE BE IMPOSED ON WOMEN? [Boston:: Mass. Assoc. Opposed to Extension of Woman Suffrage, 1896?]. single sheet folded into 4 pages. Self wraps, some marginal water staining, leaves browned. Good. [42926] $85.00

Ex-library copy with bookplate on the front paste down, wear at the extremities of the spine, small label on lower spine, library stamp on corner of title-page and a couple of places in the text, spine cloth repaired, actually a pretty clean copy for all of that. Scarce. [56905]$650.00
After fighting to study for the ministry at Oberlin College, Blackwell (1815-1921) followed a successful career as a lecturer, speaking on woman's rights, anti-slavery, and temperance in Pennsylvania, Ohio, New England and New York. before being finally ordained as a minister of the First Congregational Church, Wayne County, NY. She was the first ordained woman minister of a recognized denomination in the United States. She stayed in the official ministry only a year, being dismissed at her own request in July of 1854. She continued to lecture on the same platform with Susan B. Anthony and Amelia Bloomer and was very active in the woman suffrage movement. She published 11 books [which] ... are a religious and philosophical exploration of the universe, society and woman's role ...[Blaine p. 101]. "It cannot be doubted that the great question of to-day, for Science and Religion equally, pertains to the nature and to the duration of Personal Life. The inquiry embraces all lives; our own, and those of other beings who are either above or below mankind in the scale of existence; but who may possess, like ourselves, the similar attribute of an individualized consciousness."

31. [BLACKWELL]. MCCONNELL, Francis John. BORDEN PARKER BOWNE, his life and philosophy. NY: Abingdon Press, (1929). First Edition. 8vo, pp. 291. A very good copy. Alice Stone Blackwell's copy with her ownership signature. [10385] $125.00
Bowne (1847-1910) was a Methodist clergyman and philosopher. He headed the philosophy department at Boston University and was the dean of the graduate school there. A portrait of the distinguished woman by her sister-in-law. Madeline Breckinridge grew up at the family home, Ashland, built by her famous great-grandfather Henry Clay. In 1898, she married Desha Breckinridge, the editor of the Lexington Herald and brother of Sophonisba Breckinridge. She was chair of the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs from 1908-1912. During this time she successfully pushed for the passage of legislation allowing women to vote in school board elections. She was president of the Kentucky Equal Rights Association for two separate terms and vice-president of the National Women's Suffrage Association. The importance of her efforts in the fight for women's suffrage cannot be overstated by those in Kentucky and the rest of the nation. She died in November of 1920, shortly after the ratification of the 19th Amendment, and after she cast her first and only vote.

35. BROCKETT MD., L[inus] P[ierpont]. WOMAN: her rights, wrongs, privileges, and responsibilities. Containing a sketch of her condition in all ages and countries . . . her present legal status ... her relations to man ... her ability to fill the enlarged sphere of duties and privileges claims for her, her true position in education, professional life, employments, and wages, considered. Woman Suffrage, its folly and inexpediency ... Cincinnati: Howe's Subscription, 1869. First Edition. 8vo, pp. 447. Illustrated with full page engravings. Lacks the tissue covering the frontispiece. Brown cloth, stamped in gilt and blind, some faded, a very good tight copy. With the pencil ownership signature on the end paper of Harry S. Z. Matthias, editor of the Weekly Review in Galion, Ohio. Krichmar 1489. [58636] $450.00
Brockett examines the whole question of the political, social and economic status of women and uses scriptural history as the basis of his analysis; arriving at a conclusion against woman suffrage and for a traditional role for women.

WRITTEN TO FUND THE WISCONSIN WOMAN SUFFRAGE CAMPAIGN
With a Full Page holograph explanation

In 1911 the legislature of Wis. submitted the Woman's suffrage amendment to the voters. I telegraphed Mrs. DeVoe to come and conduct the campaign, she came but circumstances prevented her from remaining. While there she suggested the preparation of these sketches as being more valuable for the purpose of sale to aid our treasury than a cook book, accordingly the sketches were hastily thrown together & with all their incompleteness were given to the association as a slight help in paying the bills of the campaign.

36. BROWN, Olympia. ACQUAINTANCES, OLD AND NEW, AMONG REFORMERS. [Milwaukee: by the author], 1911. First Edition. 8vo, pp. 115. Gray cloth, illustrated with photos, a very fine copy. Krichmar 4542. Rare. OP. On the front blank end paper, Brown's holograph describes how this book came to be written: "in 1911 the legislature of Wis submitted the Woman's suffrage amendment to the voters. I telegraphed Mrs. DeVoe [Mrs. Emma] to come and conduct the campaign. She came but circumstances prevented her from remaining & while there she suggested the preparation of these sketches as being more valuable for the purpose of sale, to aid our treasury than a cook book accordingly the sketches were hastily thrown together & with all their incompleteness ever given to the association as a slight help in paying the bills of the campaign." 52. DALL, Mrs. [Caroline Healy]. THE ROMANCE OF ASSOCIATION; or, One Last Glimpse of Charlotte Temple and Eliza Wharton. A curiosity of literature and life. Cambridge: Wilson, 1875. First Edition. 8vo, pp. 114. Printed wraps (nicked and worn around the edges.) A good copy. Scarce, we haven't had a copy in 22 years! [59363] $225.00
Eliza Wharton was the model for Mrs. Rowson's shamed heroine Charlotte Temple in the novel of 1791. Mrs. Dall exposes the real circumstances of the tale. Ms. Wharton started for Boston but died giving birth to a still-born child in Danvers. That she was unmarried and that a man other than her fiancé was said to have fathered the child led to the great scandal. Scarce, this is the first copy we have had in five years. Biographer, essayist, lecturer, and women's rights advocate, Dall (1822-1912) was a participant in Margaret Fuller's Sunday afternoon lectures and an organizer of the Woman's Rights Convention in Worcester, MA. in 1855. She was active in the woman's movement for years. In 1844, she married Rev. Charles H. A Dall, only to be separated in 1855. Dall went as a missionary to India and Mrs. Dall went on to author The College the Market and the Court; or, woman's relation to education, labor and law and other important feminist tracts.

Wikipedia: "Martha Gruening (1889–1937) was an American writer and civil rights activist. She was born in Philadelphia, where her father was a well-known doctor, into a Jewish family who spoke German at home. She graduated from Smith College in 1909. After college, Gruening went to Greenwich Village in New York, where she became a relentless political agitator. She wrote and edited The Dawn, a pacifist magazine, and was arrested for "disorderly conduct" after distributing pacifist literature in New York. She served as the assistant secretary to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and wrote reports on national events for the association. She eventually moved to France and continued to advocate for the rights of black men and women until her death. "At Smith College (1909) she founded a Suffrage Club and after graduation began advanced studies at Bryn Mawr in preparation to enter Johns Hopkins Medical School. But in January 1910, while observing a protest in support of young female shirtwaist factory employees on strike, her arrest and overnight imprisonment were life-changing experiences and lessons about police conduct, the legal system, class-based inequities, and the power of the press. Revising her plans Gruening began working as a free-lance journalist, and travelled across the country as an organizer for women's voting rights before enrolling in New York University School of Law (JD 1914)." ... One hundred and one years before the U.S. awoke to #BlackLivesMatter, Gruening asserted the connection of suffrage to Black civil rights in "Two Suffrage Movements." Her early writing advocated for women's voting rights but she soon saw suffrage as part of a larger struggle for civil rights for all Americans as guaranteed by the Constitution. "Author humorist and popularizer of woman's rights and temperance doctrines"[NAW] was widely read as Josiah Allen's Wife. Her 20 humorous works, written in dialect belong to the tradition of Yankee humor established before the Civil War. Holley however, took the convention a step further to present a rustic philosopher who was a woman and who had strong opinions supporting woman's rights and temperance.

101. HOLLISTER, Horace A. THE WOMAN CITIZEN, A Problem in Education. NY: Appleton, 1919. First edn, 2nd printing. 8vo, pp. 308. Bound in cloth backed boards, a very good copy. [51740] $85.00

Hollister was a professor at the Univ. of Illinois and here echoes the letter of President Woodrow Wilson, printed at the beginning of the book, as he unequivocally calls for full suffrage for women. Hollister discusses the need of women to be able to take a full share in the civic and social life of the country, especially in light of the service that women rendered during WWI.

102. HOOKER, J[ohn]. WOMAN SUFFRAGE AND THE MARRIAGE RELATION; (offprint) To the Editor of the [Hartford] Courant (ca.1870). Single sheet (24 x 4 in.) on newsprint (some water stained in the margin), a very good copy. Scarce. [16574] $25.00

The History of Woman Suffrage (vol.II, p. 327) notes: "Mrs. [Isabella] Hooker was ably sustained in her ... position by her husband, a prominent lawyer of the state. Being equally familiar with civil and canon law ... he was well equipped to meet opponents of the reform at every point. While Mrs. Hooker held meetings in churches and school-houses through the state, her husband in his leisure hours sent the daily press articles on the subject. And thus their united efforts stirred the people of the state." In this letter, Hooker argues that easier divorce laws are not a demand of the woman suffrage movement and that it is only Mrs Stanton who wants to change the divorce laws. He argues that the issue of divorce will remain the same whether there is woman suffrage or not.

103. HOPKINS, Tighe. WARDS OF THE STATE: an unofficial view of prison and the prisoner. London: Herbert and Daniel, 1913. First edn. 8vo, Pp. 340 + adv. A nice uncut copy. [9134] $45.00

Howe was a keen observer. An interesting account of her life, travels and causes, and the people she knew.

106. HOWE, Julia Ward. Author Of "the Battle Hymn Of The Republic". (1819-1910). ALS, 2pp. on 12 x 6 in. paper with the letter of "The World's Industrial Centennial Exposition: Dept of Woman's Work, June 5th, 1885, My dear David. In very good condition. Included is a small broadside by Howe about the New Orleans Exposition (1884-1885), noting the need for the work of women to be represented at the exposition. (not in BAL). Typed transcription of the letter included. [58853] $650.00
Howe writes to "David" about depositing of her semi annual remittance where "it is drawing interest" and noting that $50 is taken out for "dear Cory." She mentions that the "Expo is nearly stripped of all it glories. I am waiting to see the debts of my department duly paid." She notes that she will be coming home soon and approves of all the "bric-a-brac" she mentioned from Howe's dear brother.

Howe is best remembered for "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" but she was also a life-long reformer and activist. She was active in the American Woman Suffrage Association, Sorosis, The Women's Clubs and a host of other organizations. She was the first woman elected to the American Academy of Arts and Letters (in 1908).

107. HOWE, Julia Ward. Author Of "the Battle Hymn Of The Republic". (1819-1910). ALS, 2pp. to Miss Gilder; March 17, 1909, written when she was 90. Some fading from framing, marginal repairs with tape, good. Howe describes a photo for publication, explaining part of her family tree: "Henry Shaw, son of my grand daughter, Julia Ward Richards and Carlton Shaw, her husband ... I have no objection to giving his name to the magazine ..." [38177] $600.00

Written in a strong hand, just a year before her death. Howe is best remembered for "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" but she was also a life-long reformer and activist. She was active in the American Woman Suffrage Association, Sorosis, The Women's Clubs and a host of other organizations. She was the first woman elected to the American Academy of Arts and Letters (in 1908).

112. KEATING, Edward. WOMAN SUFFRAGE, Extracts from speeches in the House of Representatives, January 12, 1915. Self wraps (actually two 8-1/2 x 11" sheets) that were stapled, now separate, 8pp. Very brittle pulpy paper now split at all folds (each sheet had three folds so that the item could fit in a mailing envelope). Included is the soiled envelope with Keating's free frank, the printed return address advertising the suffrage sheet lacks about half of the printed portion. The text seems to be complete. [31695] $75.00

Edward Keating was a Representative from Colorado, but born in Kansas. He was editor of the Rocky Mountain News (1906-1911). He served in Congress from 1913-1919. Lost his re-election bid in 1919. In this piece, being sent home to constituents, Keating argues that Colorado allows women to vote and that it is a "symbol of human liberty ... I believe in woman suffrage because I believe in Democracy ..." An eloquent pro-woman suffrage piece.

A pro-suffrage volume of popular wisdom. "Why hem her in with home as "her sphere" and then withhold from her the power by which she could hinder men from placing a saloon beside her door to ruin both? Answer: "She's nothing but a woman." Includes chapters on "The Bible and woman suffrage, Disfranchises, rights, who are citizens, freedom and equality," Keith offers homey wisdom and answers objections to woman suffrage, etc.

114. KELLEY, William D. SPEECHES, ADDRESSES AND LETTERS ON INDUSTRIAL AND FINANCIAL QUESTIONS; to which is added an introduction with copious notes and an index.

Philadelphia: Henry Carey Baird, 1872. First Edition. 8vo, pp. 514 + adv. Bound in green cloth, some external wear, cloth torn along the lower hinge, hinges starting, a good copy. Presented by Kelley's daughter, reformer Florence Kelley to her son Nicholas on the top of the title page: "Nicholas Kelley | from his mother | Florence Kelley | July 12th, 1906". FK. [50009] $300.00

William D. Kelley (1814 - 1890) was a Republican member of the U.S. House of Representatives from Pennsylvania. Kelley was a lifelong advocate of civil rights, social reform, and labor protection. He was admitted to the bar in Philadelphia in 1841. In 1846 Governor Shunk of Pennsylvania appointed him a judge of the Court of Common Pleas. He served as a judge of the Philadelphia County Court of Common Pleas from 1846-1856. He came to national attention after his 1854 speech against the slave trade, "Slavery in the Territories", was published and widely read. After the repeal of the Missouri Compromise by the Kansas-Nebraska Act in 1854, Kelley quit the Democratic Party. In 1854 Kelley was one of the founders of the Republican Party. Kelley was elected as a Republican to Congress in 1860 and served from March 4, 1861, until his death in Washington, D.C.. He spoke often on the justice and necessity of "impartial suffrage", or voting rights for African-Americans, introduced a bill (which passed into law) in the 39th United States Congress which gave the right to vote to African-Americans in the District of Columbia, and spoke in favor of impeaching President Johnson, who had vetoed the Civil Rights Act of 1866 and the Freemen's Bureau Bill .

THE TRANSCRIPTS OF THE FAMOUS FREE LOVE TRIAL

195. (TILTON/BEECHER). TILTON, THEODORE vs. HENRY WARD BEECHER; action for Crim. Con. tried in the city court of Brooklyn, Chief Justice Joseph Neilson, presiding. Verbatim report by the official stenographer. With 18 portraits: of Chief Justice Joseph Neilson, ... Mrs. Elizabeth Tilton, Theodore Tilton, Henry Ward Beecher. etc. in three volumes. NY: McDivitt et. al., 1875. First Edition. small 4to, pp. 758, 902, 1042. Bound in publisher's cloth, with library stamps on the end paper, title page, bookplate, accession sticker on spine, hinge repaired, generally a good set. This is the transcript of the full trial. Scarce. [54417] $950.00

One of the great scandals of the time, the Beecher/Tilton trial must be seen in the light of the free love advocacy of Victoria Woodhull. Living with Dr. Woodhull and her husband Capt. Blood and the target of intense political gossip, Woodhull attacked Henry Ward Beecher, demanding that he own up to his relationship with Elizabeth Tilton. When Beecher maintained a silence, Woodhull spilled the story in a speech in Boston and printed the charges in her Woodhull and Claflin's Weekly. Within hours, she and her sister were jailed for passing obscenity through the mails. Theodore Tilton, novelist and former Beecher associate, later his successor, in the editorship of the Independent, charged Beecher with criminality in relation to his wife Elizabeth Tilton and instituted a civil suit laying his damages at $100,000. The trial, which lasted 6 months, resulted in a hung jury. Woodhull testified at the trial and, it is said, developed relationships with both Tilton and Beecher, continuing to advocate free love. In that Woodhull was involved in the woman suffrage movement, running for President in 1872 at the head of the "Equal Rights Party" the case takes on a larger significance, offering a fascinating side bar to the 19th century Woman Suffrage Movement.

From Wikipedia: The Women's International League for Peace and Freedom (WILPF) was established in the United States in January 1915 as the Woman's Peace Party. It is a non-profit non-governmental organization working "to bring together women of different political views and philosophical and religious backgrounds determined to study and make known the causes of war and work for a permanent peace" and to unite women worldwide who oppose oppression and exploitation. WILPF has national sections in 37 countries. The forerunner to the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, the Woman's Peace Party (WPP) was formed in January, 1915 in Washington, D.C. at a meeting called by Jane Addams and Carrie Chapman Catt. The approximately 3,000 women attendees approved a platform calling for the extension of suffrage to women and for a conference of neutral countries to offer continuous mediation as a way of ending war. Two WILPF leaders have received the Nobel Peace Prize for their peace efforts and international outlook and work with WILPF: Jane Addams, in 1931 and Emily Greene Balch in 1946."

Accompanied by her sister, Wright first settled in New York City, while she attempted to establish herself as a dramatist. Frustrated by her lack of literary success, she returned to London in 1820. Her letters home however, resulted in the present work, which has been called "One of the most celebrated travel memoirs of the early 19th century [NAW]". This includes material on the condition of the working class, politics, education, religion, slavery, and women, while including the author's unabashed enthusiasm for America. Upon her return to America in 1824, Wright became a leading figure in the agitation for woman suffrage and the abolition of slavery. Of note was her attempt to establish an experimental colony for the gradual emancipation of slaves on land purchased near Memphis, Tenn. She lived at Owen's New Harmony for some years before establishing the "Hall of Science" in New York to serve as a platform for her lecture series. "See NAW, etc.
